Dedication

This book, filled with memories of our senior year, is affectionately dedicated to Mr. Robert Conley, efficient football coach and principal of Crooksville High School. Mr. Conley will, of course, be long remembered for the successful 1959 football season, but in the hearts of many students he will be longer remembered for his understanding guidance. Therefore, the 1960 Crux-Hi-Skan is dedicated to our friend and leader, Mr. Robert Conley.

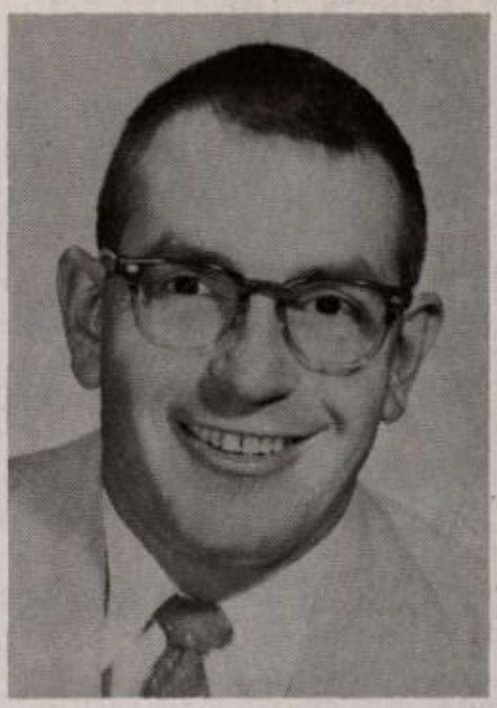
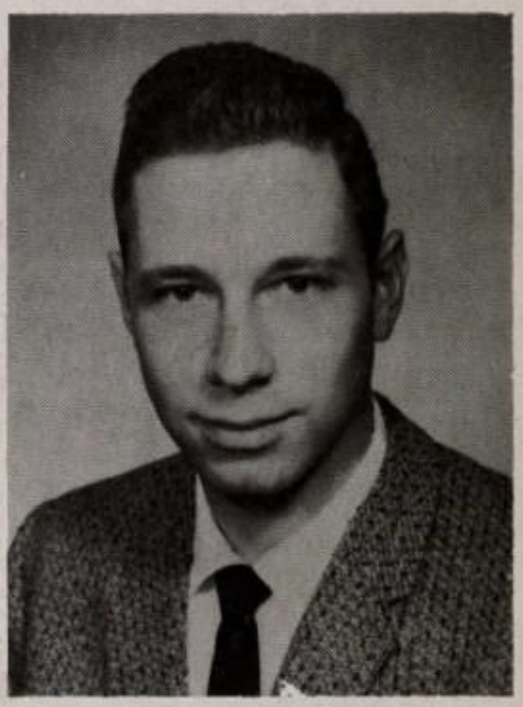
MR. WORTHINGTON has completed his ninth year as superintendent of Crooksville schools. We, the Senior Class of 1960, would like to express our thanks to him for helping us throughout our school years.



MR. CONLEY has served his first year as principal of Crooksville High School and also coached the championship football team. We wish to take this opportunity to thank him for all he has done for us.

HILDA ALLWINE has served three years as our school nurse. Through her check-ups and tests we have received valuable information concerning our health records. We wish to thank Hilda for her hard work and willingness to help us.

RUTH ALEXANDER has been our secretary for two years. She has performed the endless tasks of her job with care and efficiency. Her willingness to help the Senior Class will be gratefully remembered.



MR. WILSON has completed his first year as guidance counselor of Crooksville High School. He has done much in directing the Senior Class as to their future vocations. We would like to give him a vote of thanks for a job well done.

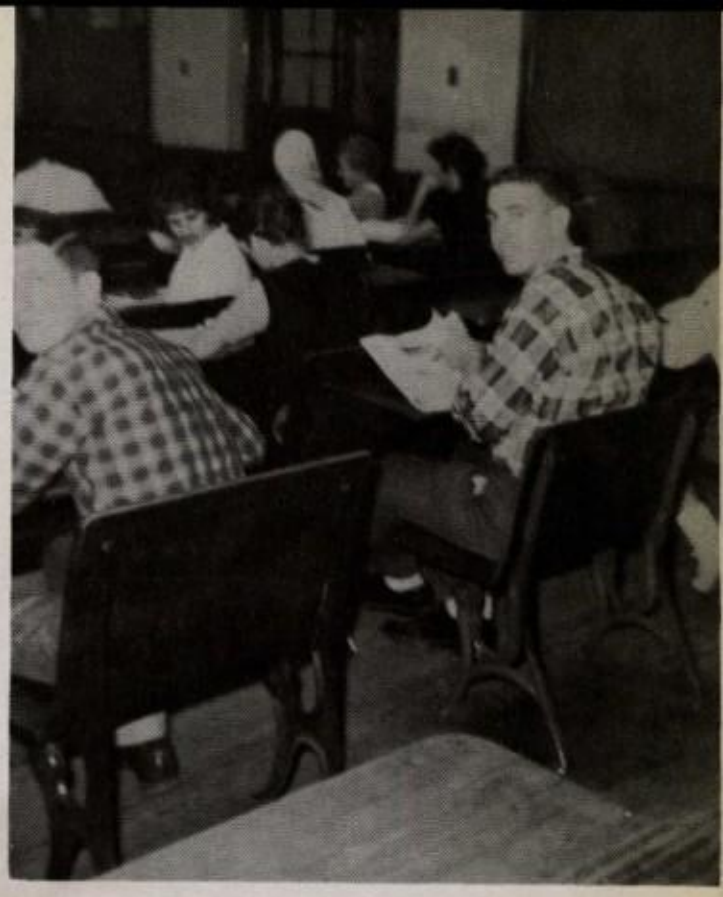
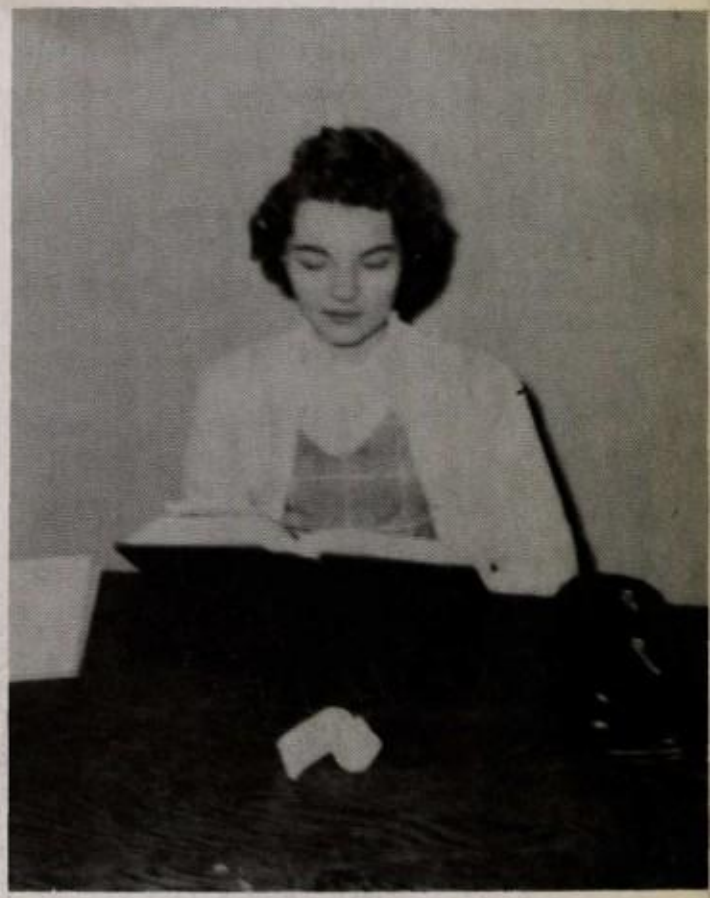
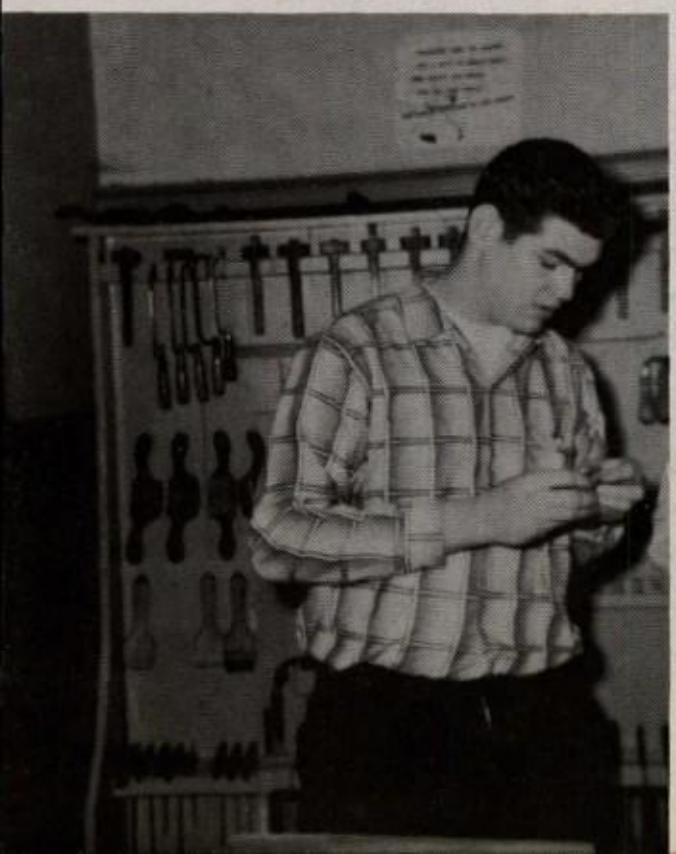
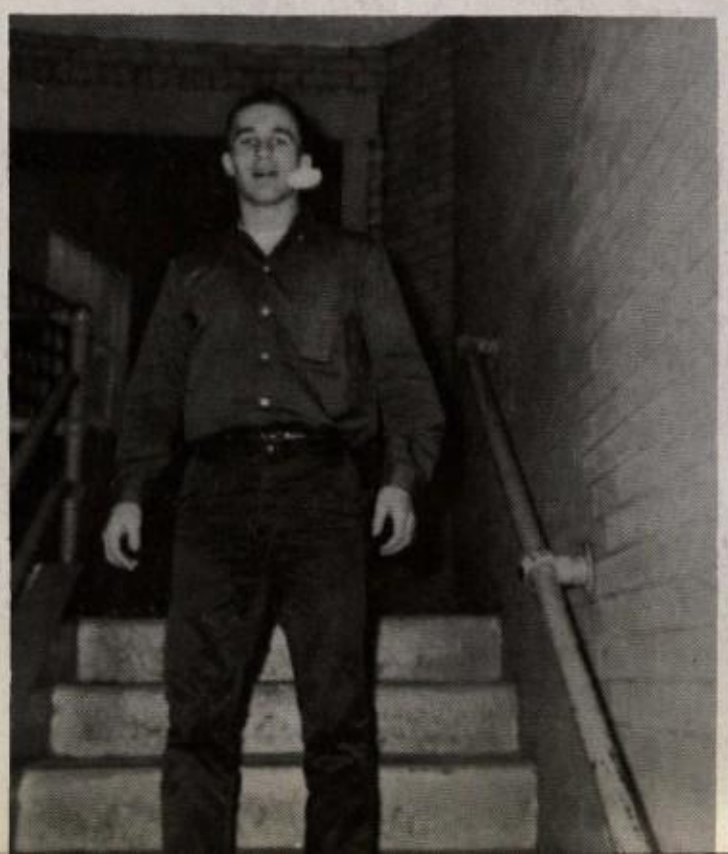
Senior Snaps









Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1960, of Crooksville High School, being of sound mind and memory, so we think, do make and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

ITEM I

To the addle-brained, dim-witted, childish, insignificant little juniors, we say, "We hope you can achieve at least one-tenth the success your heaven-born predecessors achieved." To anyone interested we let you know that we think we are the most intelligent, the hardest working, the best looking, and the best behaved class ever to graduate. Nothing is too good for us.

To assist you in the achievement we leave you the following suggestions which we have so admirably practiced in attaining our dignity.

1. Study hard for at least four hours every day so that you may be the second most brilliant class ever to graduate from Crooksville High School. We are the first.
2. Never loaf in study halls. Follow our example.
3. Address your teachers with respect, for, after all, they are just like great-grandparents to us.
4. Do as we have done, and success will be yours without a doubt.

ITEM II

To the junior boys we express our sincere regret that all of the beautiful girls are graduating. By the way, junior girls, what will you do with all of us handsome boys gone? But this is just another problem that faces this younger generation.

ITEM III

To the high school we bequeath the following:

1. We leave bars for all the windows of the school just to give the place more natural atmosphere.
2. We leave a better lighting system. Too many students are in the dark.
3. We leave an elevator to the second floor, so that Miss Dillehay's poor victims will not be so tired that they can't put up a good battle.

ITEM IV

To the various departments we bequeath the following:

1. To the biology class we leave juicier and bloodier worms.
2. To the chemistry class we leave a bomb-proof shelter and a few gas masks.
3. To the library we leave 1,000 funny books and the True Detective Magazine.
4. To the history class we leave Marlin Bush's little book with telephone numbers just in case they have to get some dates in a hurry.
5. To the drum players and horn tooters of the school band we leave a sound-proof room in the middle of the Sahara Desert.
6. To the English class we leave the book entitled The Works of William Milkshake. They should eat this up even though it is pretty thick.

ITEM V

To the various teachers of the school we bequeath the following:

1. To Miss Dillehay we leave a car and chauffeur during the winter months.
2. To Miss Coulter we leave our sympathy. Never again will she have such a beneficial, faultless, and industrious class. We couldn't help it if we were so perfect.
3. To Mr. Larry Wilson we leave a band that won't talk, won't chew gum, will keep their feet on the floor, and will come to band practice.
4. To Mr. Conley we can only leave memories of the most co-operative and efficient class he has ever slave-driven.
5. To Mr. James Wilson we leave a couch so that he can better psychoanalyze next year's mixed-up senior class.

ITEM VI

The following individuals bequeath these possessions to their friends:

I, Linda Sparks, leave my original hairdos to Linda Russell.
I, Paula Trussell, leave my clothes to Darlene. She wears them all anyway.
I, Peggy Hinkle, leave my ability to please Miss Dillehay to Judy Donaldson.
I, Judy Ebaugh, leave to Roger Cope a "Hands Off" sign, in hopes that he will use it next year.
I, Joan Brooks, leave to Stephanie Sopko my ability to answer any questions . . . . . wrong.
I, Sandy Aichele, leave my crazy sense of humor to anyone who will take it.
I, Judy Wilson, leave my position as bell-ringer to anyone with a good watch and a strong finger.
I, Cheryl Adams, leave my secret of "how to hate men" to Betty Troyan.
I, Mary Jane Pletcher, leave my blond hair to Karen Wilson.
I, Connie Allen, leave my neatness to Susan Aichele.
I, Mickey Barton, leave my giggles and good times to Jean Stought.
I, Bill Jackson, leave my Wildroot Cream Oil to Mr. Sexton.
I, Sharon Reed, leave my love for horses to Jean Hall.
I, Kay DeGarmo, leave my long blond hair to Darla Zinn.
I, Nancy Goff, leave my quiet ways to Sandra Rosser.
I, Dottie Robbins, leave my cheerfulness to Leanna Jackson.
I, Bill Graves, leave nothing to nobody because I need it all myself.
I, Charlene Hayman, leave my journalism ability to some other lucky person.
I, Linda Henning, leave my driving ability to Connie Barringer.
I, Karolyn Harbaugh, leave myself to Fabian.

I, Margie Rupe, leave Bob's Buick to anyone who will exchange it for a '60 Cadillac.
I, Otto Wintgens, leave at last.
I, Jack Foster, leave my grades to the trash man. Who else would want them?
I, Larry Briggs, leave my car to Jim Morrison, so he won't have to walk so far to get to school.
I, Bob Riggs, leave my ability to pay attention in English class to Becky Milligan.
I, Marlin Bush, leave my lovable personality to Mr. Conley.
I, Dick Ruff, leave Linda to no one, and hope no one will get her.
I, Jim Burley, leave my marriage license to Marsha Rodgers.
I, Terry Brown, leave my masculine figure to Jerry Orecchio.
I, Dave Burley, leave my quietness in class to Roger Gossman.
I, Bill Moore, leave my height to Joe McKeever.
I, Vernon Sowers, leave the MVL record to next year's football team in hopes that they will complete as fine a season as this one.
I, Steve Frecker, leave. Isn't that enough?

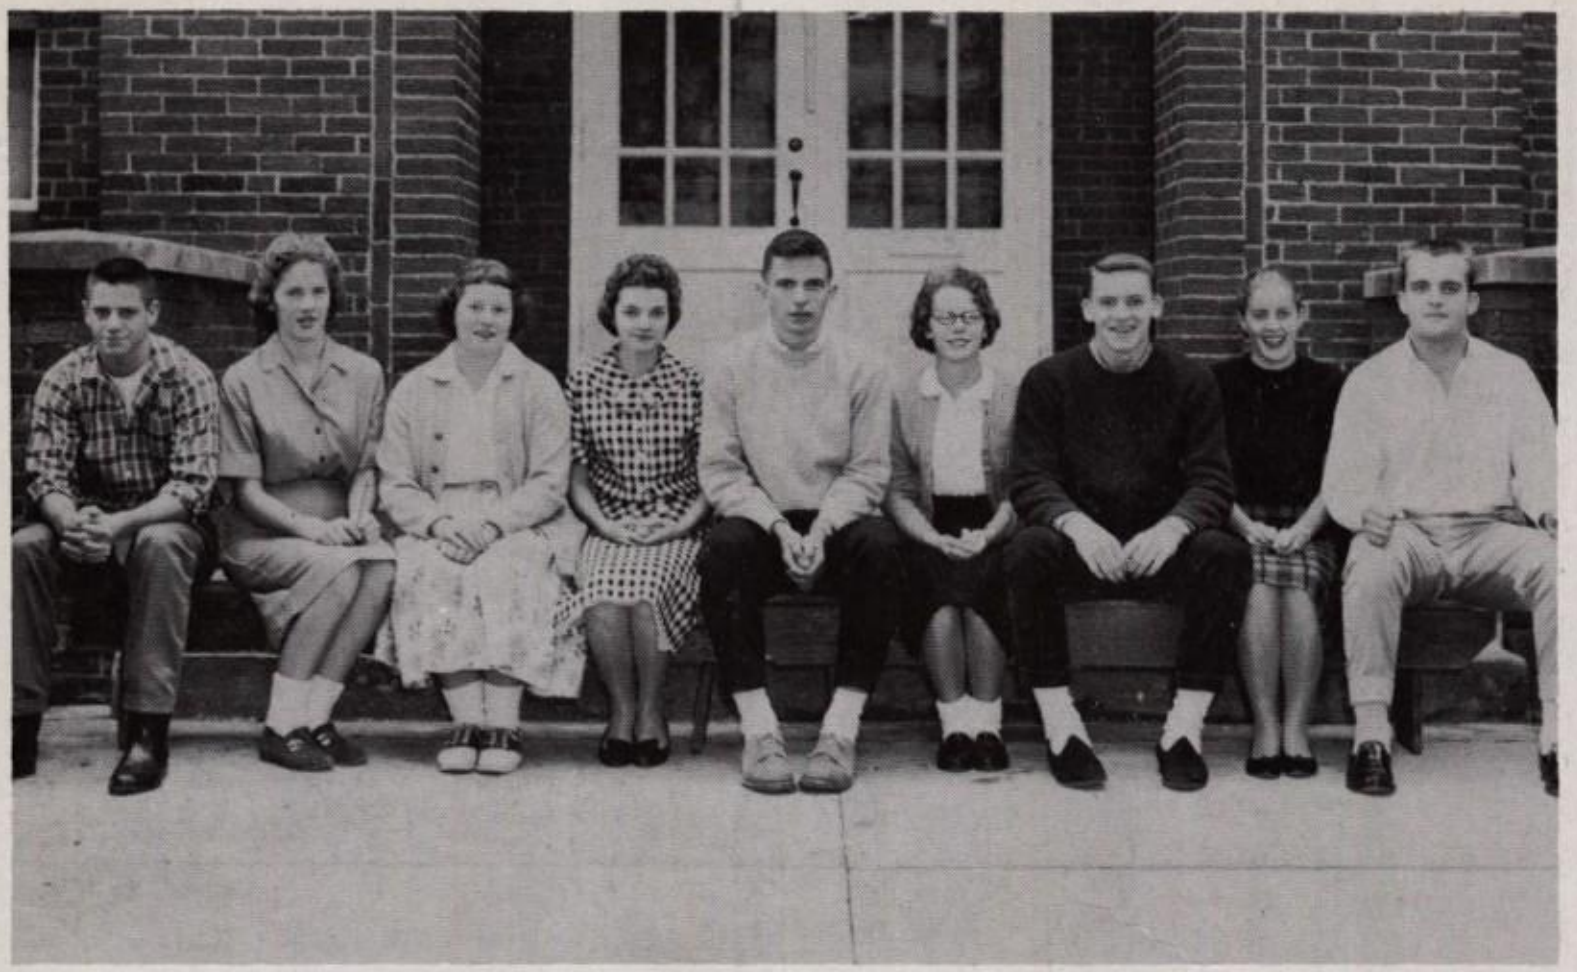
Office Help



Murphy, DeGarmo, Wood, Goff, Cope, Ebaugh, Morrison, Wilson, Downey.

Members of our office staff are selected for their ability to accept responsibility, their readiness to work, and their ability to keep an average scholastic rating. These students give up one study hall a day to work in the office.

Their duties are to take announcements and other important notices to the teachers and classrooms, call people to the phone, run errands for the secretary, and find the students who are wanted in the office.

We should all take time to thank these students for their untiring efforts.

The Library Club is composed of girls and boys who give up one study hall a day to work in the library. These librarians help the students who come into the library to benefit from it.

The club has one meeting a month under the direction of Miss Dillehay to discuss the problems of the library. They also enjoy refreshments and special guest speakers.

Librarians receiving pins for two years of service are; Joan Brooks, Sandy Aichele, Micky Barton, Paula Trussell, Sharon Reed, and Judy Wilson.
